Dear Mr. Newton,

The class of 1977 takes great pride in dedicating this book to you for a job well done. Your enthusiasm and determination to teach us the evils of using run-on sentences and fragments, have made your classes both informative and enjoyable. The skills you have taught us are invaluable, and your famous vocabulary tests will never be forgotten. We are extremely grateful for all you have taught us - not only about English, but also about life.

With many thanks,
The Class of 1977

You're the One

You Are the Only Reason . . .

Mr. Francis Kilgrew — Superintendent

We, the class of '77, proudly pay tribute to Francis J. Kilgrew, Superintendent of Somerset Public Schools since 1960. His dedication and high standards have resulted in quality education for the citizens of Somerset. A graduate of Whitman High School, Bridgewater State College, B.S. Ed., and Boston College, M.Ed., Mr. Kilgrew took advanced courses at both Brown and Harvard Universities. He became principal of Pottersville Elementary School in 1930, and was appointed Somerset High School principal in 1946.

By giving us his constant encouragement and support, he helped us to appreciate learning, and to become better people for it. It is not with sorrow for the future, but with great pride from the past, that the graduating class of Somerset High School says thank you and good bye to Francis J. Kilgrew.

Dinner Theater

On the nights of November 18, 19, and 20, Dinner Theatre III was presented at the Somerset High auditorium. "PAROLE," a moving drama, directed by Mr. Kiah O'Brien III, was a first for the Dinner Theatre workshop this year. The one act play starred Betsy Saab as Karin Straulseth, and Karl Chorlton who assumed the role of Karin's younger brother Joey. The play also featured David Still as Joe Straulseth, Sr., Leslie Fletcher as Linda, the youngest daughter in the family, and Chris Woods as David. The role of Mrs. Bernice Lowell was convincingly portrayed by Marybeth Keyes and Ellen Rodriques played her daughter Cathy.

THE BANKER'S DILEMMA," under the direction of Miss Sharon Hamlen added a lighter side to the evening. The cast of this lighthearted farce included Rick Habib as Banker Van Bludgeon, Lisa Forczyk as Dorothea Oz Dimpling, Jennifer Corcoran as Widder Pearl Twilly, and last but by no means least, Mark Watkinson as Norman.

The students did a tremendous job with the diligent help of Mr. O'Brien's play production class, and are to be congratulated once again for their fine efforts.

JANINE TRUDEAU

Pride best describes this year's 1976 girls Field Hockey team. After the team attended Mount Pocono Hockey Camp, under the new coaching staff of Mrs. Kathy Milan and Miss Ronnie Nobrega, the team was a combination of high spirits, competitive skills, and the desire to be a winning team.

The team, tri-captained by Martha Brough, Robbin Holden, and Janine Trudeau ended their season with a record of 10 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties which enabled them to participate in the Southeastern Massachusetts State Field Hockey Tournament. Following the 3-2 win in the preliminary game, they were narrowly defeated in double over-time by a score of 1-0. Congratulations to the coaches and all the girls for a job well done.

Volleyball

The Somerset Blue Raider girls volleyball team finished in third place in the SMC Division II with a 6-6 won-loss record. The high spirited and very enthusiastic group was led by senior co-captains Cyndie Perry and Denise Mills.

The first year Junior Varsity squad finished with a 9-3 record, good enough for a second place in Division II. The junior varsity most valuable player was sophomore Cheryl Freitas.

Two Raiderettes were chosen for Division All Star honors. Denise Mills was chosen to the first team while junior Nancy Lafleur was picked for the second team. Other team awards went to Denise Mills for the team MVP and Claudia Soares was awarded the coaches award symbolizing sportsmanship on the court.

Cross-Country

The 1976 Blue Raider Cross-Country team experienced their best season since 1971. Led by Coach Richard Bernardo the team had an impressive 5-1 record that placed them third in the conference.

The co-captains for the 1976 season were Ted Higginson and junior, Clare Lussier. The other seniors on the team included Elise Bolski, Laurie Baskin, Kenneth Gallant, John Molloy, and John Parker.

The all-conference team included two Somerset harriers - senior co-captain Ted Higginson, and junior standout Terry Wnek. Through the course of the season, the bulk of the pressure was carried by Ted Higginson, Terry Wnek, and another up-and-coming star, Bill Robitaille.

Since 1973, the girls participation had increased tremendously gaining them the respect that comes with being a truly competitive cross-country team. The outstanding girl performer was Michelle Lussier who competed in the state finals.

The freshman team, led by varsity runners Todd Emard and Paul Gartner, had an equally successful season finishing second at two Boston meets.

Coach Richard Bernardo felt that the team's overall attitude toward good sportsmanship and competitiveness was what made them the team they were.

SOCCER

The Somerset Blue Raider Soccer team, in its first year of varsity competition compiled an impressive 7-5-2 record in the Southeastern Massachusetts Division I play. The Raiders, coached by Mr. Whitney Horton got off to a slow start but finished the season strong by losing only two out of their last ten games.

Junior Udy Kleinberger lead the team in scoring with 9 goals followed by sophomore Rick Fonseca with 6, and senior Joe Castro with 5 goals. As a team, Somerset outscored its opposition 28 goals to 24.

Sophomore goaltender Ken Cordeiro turned in three shutouts and several other outstanding performances throughout the season. The Raider defense improved greatly as the season went on, allowing only seven goals in their final seven games.

Tri-Captains Mike Corrigan, Bobby Stafford, and Joe Castro along with other seniors Jimmy Cabral, Lenny Hoseit, and Jon Crockett gave the team excellent leadership in its first year of varsity play.

The Raiders were playing against several very experienced teams and yet were able to hold their own and look impressive in many of their games. Somerset came up with two superb performances, one against Division I champion, Diman, defeating them 3-0, and the other, being a hard fought tie against the Division champion Westport team, with a score of 2-2.

If the first year for SHS varsity soccer is any indication of what is to come, Somerset will be in for some very good years in the future.

The 1976 football team, led by head coach Ed Winslow experienced their best season since 1971. They had an impressive 6 and 3 overall record in which they outscored their opponents 177-75.

Throughout the course of the season the team was provided with excellent leadership by senior co-captains Steve Billington and George Brodeur. The team as a whole worked together. They had an excellent offensive line and their defense was responsible for holding their opponents to a mere 8.3 points per game. The specialty teams in many cases turned the game around in the Raiders' favor.

In division two, the all-conference selections included Steve Billington, George Brodeur, Norm England, Kevin Proulx, and Rick Mullen.

In the past season, Coach Winslow's main goal was to restore a winning attitude. He did just that, and in doing so, gave the future ball players of Somerset High School a more optimistic outlook towards the game of football.

1976-1977 SHS Icemen

The Somerset varsity ice hockey team finished another very successful season under Coach Souza with a 17-5-4 record. The Raiders were moved up into Division I where they performed better than expected, finishing fourth with a 5-3-3 record. The Raiders also qualified for the state post-season tournament by way of having only three defeats in league play.

For the second year in a row, the Raiders were led in scoring by Ron Marcellus with a total of 65 points. Senior captain Bob Stafford, who played very well throughout the season, finished second in scoring with 50 points. Rickey Stafford finished third with 38 points followed by Brian Paskowski with 37 points. Freddy Storch had another good year in the net and Russ Lavoie did a fine job in the backup position.

The Raiders were the surprise team in the area this year. Many people had picked the young and inexperienced Raiders to finish last but Coach Souza's men shocked everyone by qualifying for the state tournament. Somerset was beaten by a tough Hull team in the preliminary round 7-1.

The Raiders also fielded a junior varsity hockey team for the first time in history. Coached by Tom McDermott, the team finished its premiere year with a 6-6 record. With a very young varsity and a good J.V. team the future for Somerset hockey looks very good.

Basketball '76-'77

The Somerset Raider varsity basketball team finished the 1976-1977 season with an impressive 18-4 won-loss record. Somerset the defending co-champs of the SMC Division II finished in second place with an excellent 13-3 record.

For the second year in a row, Coach Ray McDonald's hoopsters qualified for the post season state tournament. Somerset also played in a holiday season tournament for the first time in several years. The Raiders were crowned the first champions of the annual Tiger-Tip Off Tournament with a 59-50 victory over the host team, the Taunton Tigers. Junior Mike Borden was named the tournaments most valuable player and captain Dave Bence was named to the tournament all-star team along with Borden.

After a shaky opening game with Case, the Raiders ran off five straight victories. During the month of January, Somerset had an impressive 7-1 record running off six more consecutive wins. Somerset finished the season off with a 74-48 romp over the same Case team that had given them so much trouble back in December. Coach McDonald was pleased with the team as they continually improved throughout the season.

Mike Borden lead the team in scoring with a 17.3 points per game average, followed by Dave Bence with a 15 point average. Norm England, who gave the team the stability that it needed throughout the season, was the third Raider to finish in double figures with an 11.7 point average.

Mike Parent was the team's ball handler and also the team's defensive leader along with Steve Pimental. Whenever the Raiders needed a big defensive surge, Parent and Pimental could always be seen leading the way for Somerset. Although he didn't play much. Mike Mello made his presence felt. In the last two games of the season, Mike came off the bench to spark big rallies that eventually led to Raider victories. Steve Cadorette started the year off at forward and throughout the year Coach McDonald used Steve's offensive talents in key spots. Leon Thompson, the diminutive guard, was one of the fans favorite players. He only played in the final minutes of some games but whenever he got on the floor, he always turned in an exciting performance.

The graduating seniors leave Somerset with pleasant memories of their playing days. It is hoped that they carry on the lessons of sportsmanship that were learned at SHS.

Terry Wnek, Bill Robitaille, and Gerry Harris gave solid performances in the running events, while George Brodeur and Bob Paradis faired well in the shot put. Jim Lavigne scored many points in the high jump and the whole team's dedication made every meet a close one.

Gymnastics

The girls gymnastics team, led by Coaches Bill Barnicoat and Pat Haddad, was once again undefeated in their league and became District Champions.

Although the Varsity squad consisted mainly of Freshman and Sophomores, they gave excellent performances led by Senior, Debbie Cote. Along with Debbie, the team achieved the state finals on the abilities of Judy Cote, Ally Johnston and the very promising and high-scoring Frosh duo of Jane Bence and Nancy Cote. Other consistent contributors to our outstanding squad were Nancy Lafleur, Erica Bolski, Jane Wilbur, Michelle Lemaire, Jean Hoyle, Paula Silva, and Lois Rego.

It was a great year for a great team!

Captained by seniors Mike Parent and Bobby Grime, the boy's varsity baseball team finished with an 8-12 won-loss record. Competing in the S.M.C. Division I, the Raiders were not involved in the pennant race, but throughout the season, they were a team to be reckoned with.

Two Raiders were chosen for the S.M.C. Division I all star team. They were seniors Jim Mullins and Norm England. Both Mullins and England finished the season with .362 batting averages, with England hitting four homeruns, along with twenty R.B.I.'s.

Bob Grime finished his second successful varsity campaign with a solid .318 and Brendan Shea ended with a steady .286. Don Pereira had a good year behind the plate and also chipped in a .261 batting average. Co-capt. Mike Parent held the team together with his steady play in both the field and at the plate. Jeff Gasper helped all with some sparkling catches in the outfield and some clutch hitting.

Softball

This year's girl's varsity softball team finished it's season with an impressive second place in the S.M.C. Division II behind champion Durfee. Coached by Mrs. Mary Jane Keyes, the young and inexperienced Raiderettes came up with a very surprising 9-3 won-loss record. Because of their youth, many people felt the team would not prosper as they did. The girls hung together, however, and showed what a little Raider spirit can do. Next year's team, which is to be co-captained by Kim Lyne and Lynda Borge, has a solid nucleus and should look forward to many more successful teams in the future.

Three girls were chosen to the league all star team. They were senior Sue Sheppard, and sophomores Chris Torpey and Dawn Antone. Other awards given out at the end of the year went to Kim Lyne as the team's outstanding player, and to senior tri-captain Claudia Soares.

Golf

The Somerset Raider varsity golf team finished sixth overall in statewide team competition this year. Coach Paul Corcoran's linksmen captured the lofty state team ranking in a state championship match held in May. Seniors Mike Corrigan, Alan Olivier, and Greg Quental were the mainstays in this year's squad which, for the third year in a row, captured the S.M.C. league title. Juniors Bob Finne, Jerry Silvia, and Peter Boardman also played important roles in many of the Raider victories this year.

With three seniors leaving the squad, next year's team will have to work hard to match the accomplishments of this year's squad. However, the Somerset Junior Varsity golf program is coming along fine, and should produce many fine golfers in the upcoming seasons.

Tennis

In his first year at the helm of the varsity tennis team, Coach John Driscoll led his team to a fifth place finish in the S.M.C. Division I East with a 6-8 won-loss record.

Despite a lack of depth and experience, the team was able to hold its own against some of the finer teams in the area. Captain Dave Silvia moved up to first singles this year and finished with a 7-8 record. Mike Tavares and Arthur Carvalho were the second and third singles players, and the first doubles team was made up of Brendan McNally and Ken Voljak, who also preformed admirably. The second doubles tandem of senior Joey Wilkinson and Bill Sargent had an impressive 9-3 record against their competition.

As the younger players gain more experience, Coach Driscoll's team should have some exciting matches in the years to come.
